

Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture

The Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture,
The Australian Federation of Islamic Councils
and Initiatives of Change invite you to hear from

Imam Muhammad Ashafa
and
Pastor James Wuye

In recent years, Nigeria has been rocked by ethnic and religious conflicts, with tens of thousands killed and whole communities devastated. In the 1990s, these two men led opposing, armed militias, dedicated to defending their respective communities. In pitched battles, Pastor James lost his hand and Imam Ashafa's spiritual mentor and two close relatives were killed.

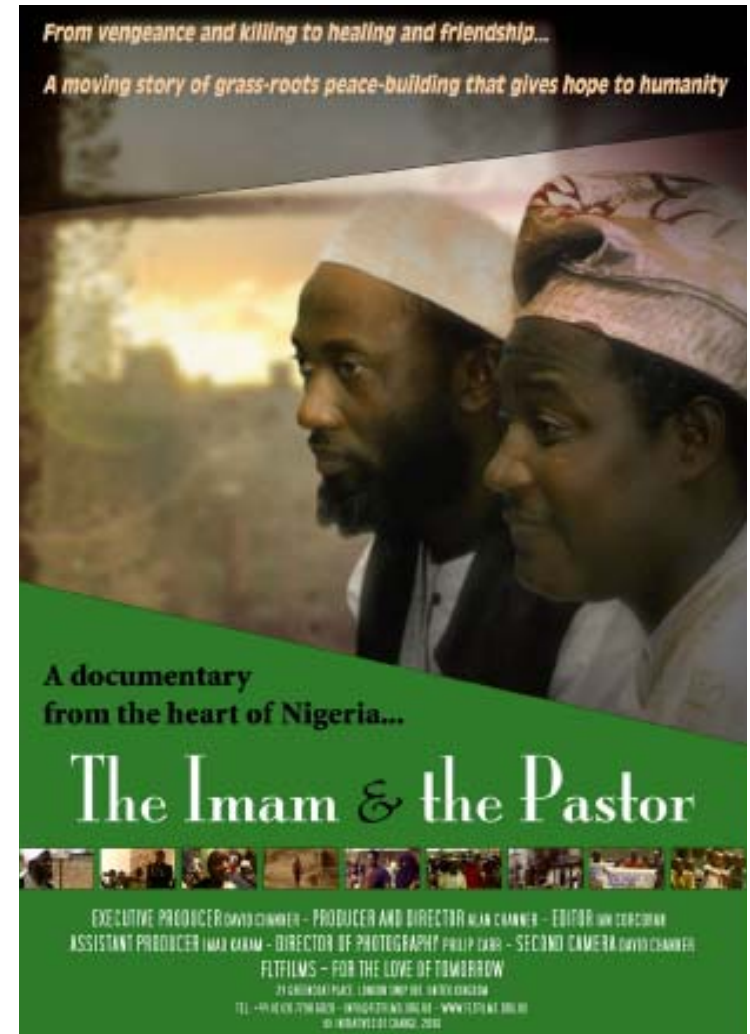

Now the two men are co-directors of the Muslim-Christian Interfaith Mediation Centre in their city of Kaduna, Northern Nigeria, leading task-forces to resolve conflicts across the country. The story of how they made this remarkable transition is told in the award-winning documentary The Imam and the Pastor (available on DVD).

They have inspired audiences at the United Nations in New York, across North America and Europe. Now they are coming to Australia for the first time to share their experiences through a series of interactive meetings.

Come and meet them in person and see the DVD

Monday, 10th November, 7.30pm

Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture
(Cnr of Kings Avenue and Blackall Street, Barton)

Donation

More information on 6281 2107 or email: andrew.lancaster@au.iofc.org

Refreshments