

Building trust across the world's divides

Initiatives of Change International

FUNDRAISING RESEARCHER

CONTEXT

Are you a dynamic person who is passionate about supporting the mission and values of Initiatives of Change (IoC), and looking for an opportunity to volunteer internationally and enhance your fundraising skills? You'll be joining the IoC International Fundraising Team and will be interacting regularly with the Fundraising Lead in support of our international and national work.

PRIMARY TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Researching needs within the IoC network which could benefit by having funding
- Researching possible funders
- Researching Request for Proposal (RFP) opportunities
- Assisting in writing proposals to funders.

KEY QUALITIES, COMPETENCIES AND EXPERIENCE

- You must be passionate about IoC's mission, committed to its values and possess a working style that reflects these.
- A self starter;
- High level of confidentiality;
- Researching experience needed;
- Some understanding of international development preferred;
- Proposal writing experience helpful.

APPLICATION

Are you interested? Send to volunteer@ioc.org:

- A short letter of motivation
- Your Curriculum Vitae (Word or PDF format).
- Two references (incl. names/contact details): one work-related and one personal.