The Asia Pacific Youth Conference (APYC) echoes the vision of people from all over Asia and the Pacific as they search for how their lives can be used to build harmony amongst the great diversity in the region. It aims to link every person with the common threads that bind us into a network that can bring change across nations through starting with change in own lives.

Participants:
Youth of 18–35 years of age from the Asia-Pacific and other regions of the world are invited to join.

Fee:
The conference fee is US$500. Fees can be paid upon arrival to the conference in US dollars. Scholarships are available upon request.

Application:
Online application is available at www.apyc.iofc.org and the deadline is 31st May 2013.

Visa:
Please check with the South Korean Embassy/Consulate in your country for visa arrangement. Some countries may not need a visa for 30 days. There is no visa on arrival.

Arrival/Departure:
Participants should arrive in Korea by the night of 17th August, to travel to the main venue in the following morning. The closing will be at 3pm on 24th so we recommend participants to fly after 9pm on 24th August. Homestays/accommodation will be arranged for those staying for the night of 24th.

Programs and activities:
• Training sessions on the basic IofC ideas
• Inner Reflection/ Quiet Time
• Plenary sessions with speakers who will address relevant issues
• Seminars and Workshops
• Outdoor Activities
• Cultural and Creative Presentations
• Homestays

Organizer
Initiatives of Change is a global network of people committed to changing themselves and engaging other people to create answers for the world. IofC operates on the principles of absolute honesty, purity, unselfishness, also love and seeking inner direction through the daily practice of listening to the inner voice.
