

Caux Dialogue on Land and Security workshops & presentations.
Provisional schedule, as at 12th June.
(Subject to changes; all named presenters have confirmed their participation, but not all have confirmed the timing of their contributions.)
	July 8th	July 9th	July 10th
1500 - 1600	Empowering Women through Peace Circles. Joy Mbaabu, founding director of Amani Communities Africa, Nairobi, Kenya; Kate Monkhouse, an International Co-ordinator for Creators of Peace.	Case study: Forest conservation and land restoration project in Laos. Tom Duncan, Director, Ecoplan Consulting Pty. Ltd., and Per Bondesen, development economist and Senior Adviser at Prime Consultancy Co. Ltd.	IUCN to be confirmed	Sustainable development through community building and individual change – a rural water management case study. Jayashree Rao, Executive Director, Grampari	talk and
	Community-driven soil and water conservation and climate-smart agriculture in Makueni County, Kenya. African Sand Dams Foundation	Trust-building interventions amongst pastoralist communities in Kenya. Alan Channer, Trustbuilding facilitator, Director of FLTfilms, and Joseph Karanja, a leader of Kenya's Clean Election Campaign.	signing
	The links between sustainable land use, identity and tenure. Noel Oettle, Environmental Monitoring Group, South Africa	Empowering pastoralists to reverse desertification and removing barriers to large scale land restoration. Allan Savory, President, Savory Institute.	ceremony
	Linking policy and practice: preventing conflict around water, land and food. Lynn Finnegan, Quaker UN Office.	Resilience (provisional title). Jakob Rhyner, Vice Rector, United Nations University + Saleemul Huq, Senior Fellow at the International Institute for Environment and Development.
1645 - 1800	Empowering Women through Peace Circles (Continued)	Case study: Forest conservation and land restoration project in Laos. (Continued)	Farmer-managed re-greening - how to build a movement around it? (Continued from the day before)
	Community-driven water and land restoration in the Thar desert, India. Prithvi Raj Singh and Kanupriya Harish, Jal Bhagirathi Foundation	Farmer-managed re-greening - how to build a movement around it? Chris Reij, Centre for Int. Cooperation, VU University; World Resources Institute + Tony Rinaudo, Natural Resources Advisor, World Vision, Australia.	Climate Change, Migration and Conflict in the Sahel. UNEP + IOM joint presentation to be confirmed	Investment Opportunities for Global Earth Repair Work & Ecosystem Restoration: Making the Case. Rhamis Kent, Permaculture consultant, Program Director at Rame Environmental Education Programme.	Situation Analysis of semi-arid ecosystems in sub-Saharan Africa using satellite imagery. Mike Mortimore, Drylands Research
	The potential of sand dams to restore degraded lands. Simon Maddrell, Executive Director, Excellent Development	Unlocking Zimbabwe's Organic Potential. Georgina McAllister, Programmes Director, Garden Africa.	The importance and availability of rural transport links. Simon Maddrell, Excellent Development
	Post-2015 Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction. Anna Christina Angulo-Thorlund, Gender Liaison Officer, UNISDR	Trust-building interventions amongst pastoralist communities in Kenya. (Continued)	Every cloud has a silver lining: Rainwater Harvesting. Vessela Monta, Executive Director, International Rainwater Harvesting Alliance