

Creators of Peace

Women transformed and empowered with a vision for Peace

“Women are the Key to Peace”

QUOTE BY THE HON. ANNA ABDALLAH MSEKWA
TANZANIAN POLITICIAN, WOMEN’S RIGHTS ACTIVIST,
AND INSPIRER OF CREATORS OF PEACE.

- ❁ Come together with women of different cultural backgrounds and beliefs to explore what is required to engender more peaceful and harmonious societies.
- ❁ Share and learn of each other’s personal stories, values and beliefs
- ❁ Break down barriers and broaden your understanding of others
- ❁ Start initiating peace from where you are – in your heart, your home, your life
- ❁ Grow personally by exploring your values and innate peace-making ability
- ❁ Discover your power, make changes and put peace into practice
- ❁ Explore the needs of your community and where you wish to make a difference
- ❁ Enrich your life, initiate positive social change, and fully express your humanity

Creators of Peace is a multicultural women’s network currently in over 40 countries working towards personal and social transformation.

Creators of Peace is a programme of Initiatives of Change, a network of men and women working to build trust across the world’s divides in more than 70 countries.

An international women’s initiative challenging women everywhere to:

- Engage in the creation of peace at every level of society
- Share responsibility for their part in conflict and in its resolution
- Build networks of forgiveness and friendship across racial and social divides
- Create opportunities for healing ourselves, our relationships and our communities.
