A PROGRAMME OF
FOUNDATIONS FOR FREEDOM

Mission

- ◆ To foster the development of truly free and just society through encouraging healing of the past and reconciliation at the levels of individuals, communities, and nations in Eastern Europe.

Vision

- ◆ Hopeful future built on trust and strong partnerships in Eastern Europe grounded on the respect for human life and historical memory.

Goals

- ◆ To facilitate the process where individuals and communities and healing experience and freedom from the victim and victimiser mindset in the historical context.
- ◆ To raise awareness both of communities and their members in taking responsibility for learning lessons of the past and shaping the future.
- ◆ To raise dialogue culture both on local, national, and international levels.

What we do?

- ◆ We run outreach programmes, dialogues, seminars, and co-organise conferences for seeking reconciliation of competing views of history perception:
  - ◆ Organisation and participation in the Ukrainian National Campaign “Week of Trust”.
  - ◆ Presentation of the experience during the Caux summer conferences, Switzerland.
- ◆ We seek to use our experience to develop processes and methods for dealing with potentially destructive attitudes and behaviours in order to make forgiveness, reconciliation, and collaboration possible:
  - ◆ Dialogues on searching for mutual understanding in the Ukrainian society.
  - ◆ Healing the Past dialogue seminars across Ukraine.
  - ◆ Outreach programmes on gathering life stories in Ukrainian communities.
- ◆ We aim to be fully inclusive and respectful of diverse historical memories, belief systems, faith traditions, and ethnic cultures:
  - ◆ Presentation of the Letting Go book of life stories.
  - ◆ Exhibition: The Neighbours. Live Stories in Crimea.
  - ◆ Participation in the annual Ecumenical Social Week campaign.
